Daylight, see the dew on a sunflower
And a rose that is fading
Roses wither away
Like the sunflower I yearn to turn my face to the dawn
I am waiting for the day...

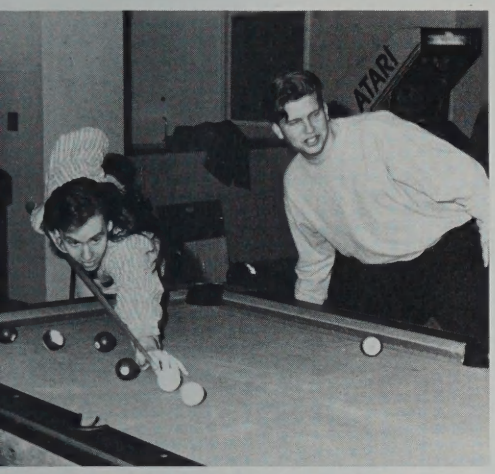

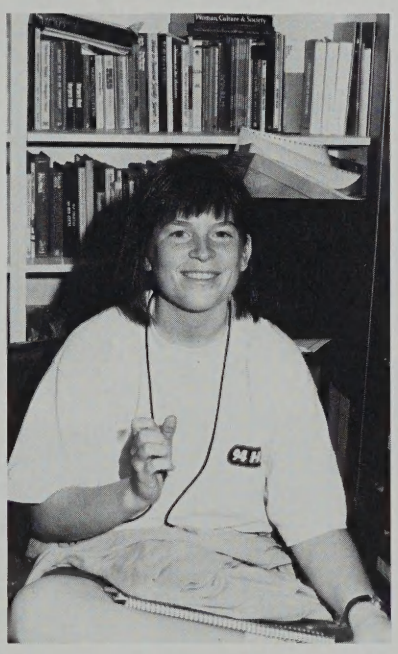

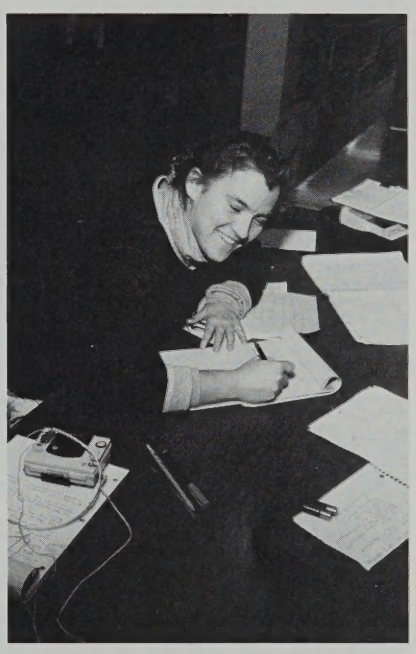

ATARI

Watson Fine Arts Center

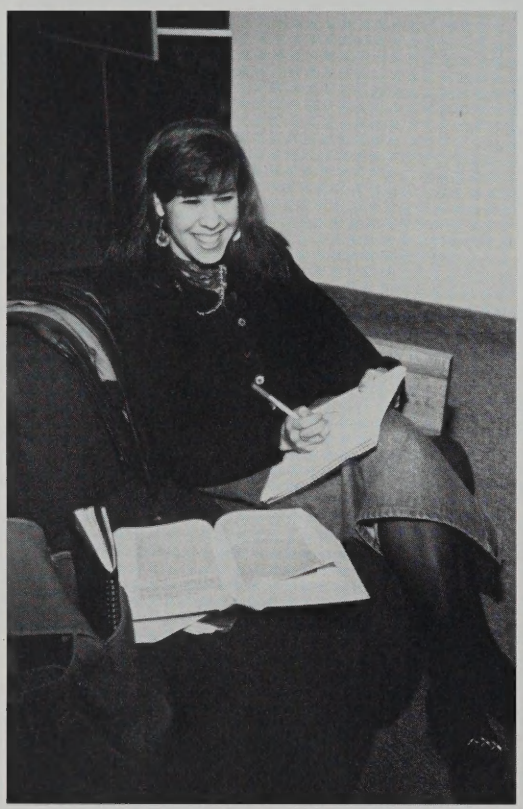

Memory, turn your face to the moonlight
Let your memory lead you
Open up, enter in
If you find there the meaning of what happiness is Then a new life will begin...

Memory, all alone in the moonlight
I can smile at the old days
I was beautiful then
I remember the time I knew what happiness was Let the memory live again. . .

Burnt out ends of smokey days
The stale cold smell of morning
The streetlamp dies, another night is over
Another day is dawning. . .

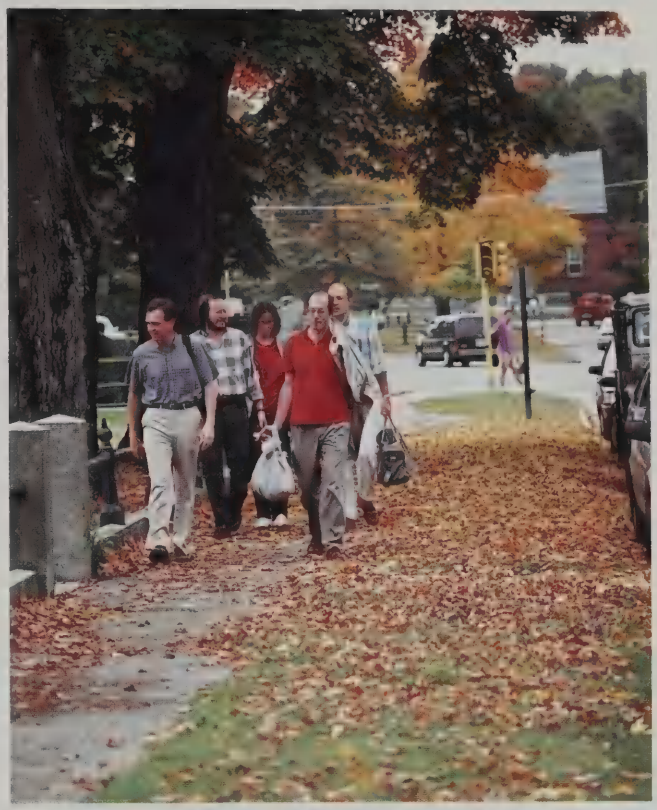

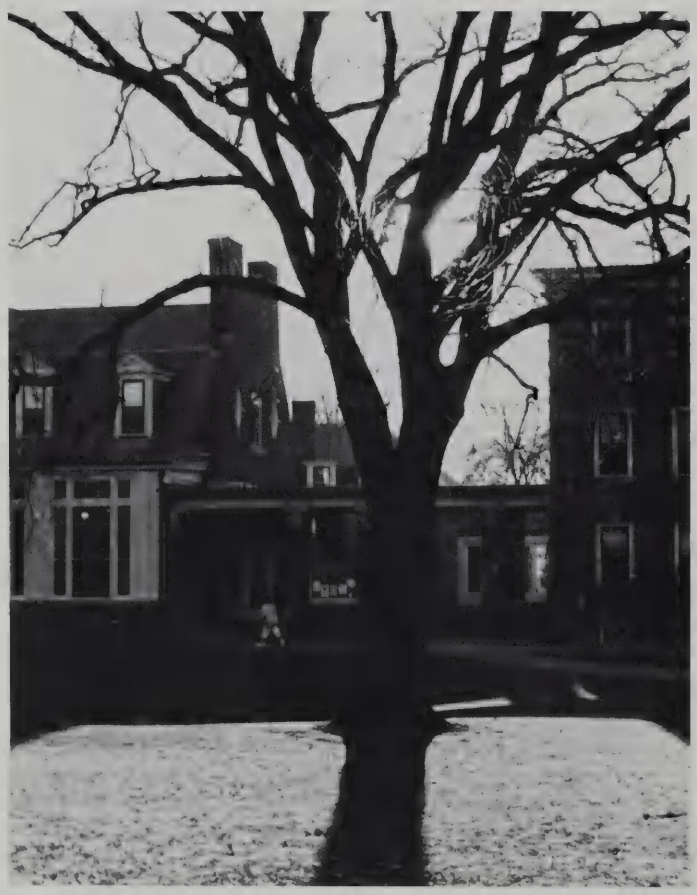

Daylight, I must wait for the sunrise
I must think of a new life
And I mustn't give in
When the dawn comes tonight will be a memory too
And a new day will begin. . .

Sunlight, through the trees in summer
Endless masquerading
Like a flower the dawn is breaking
The memory is fading. . .

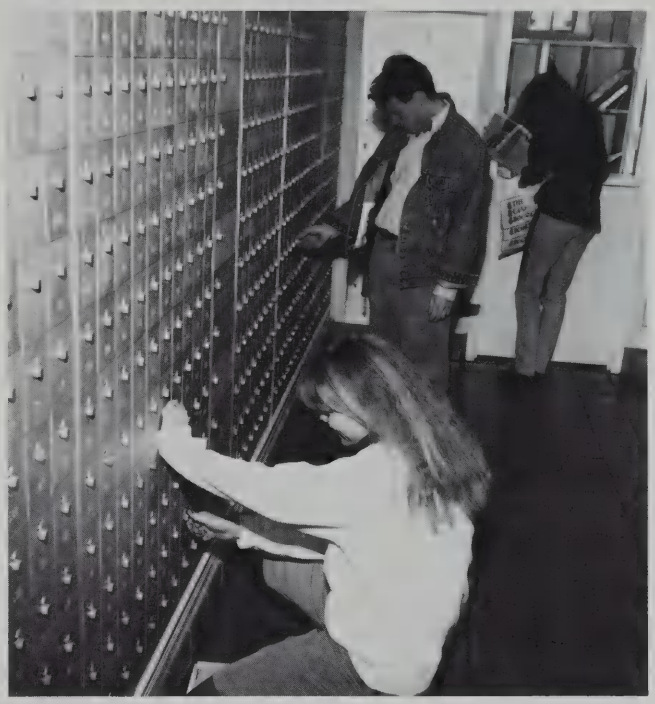

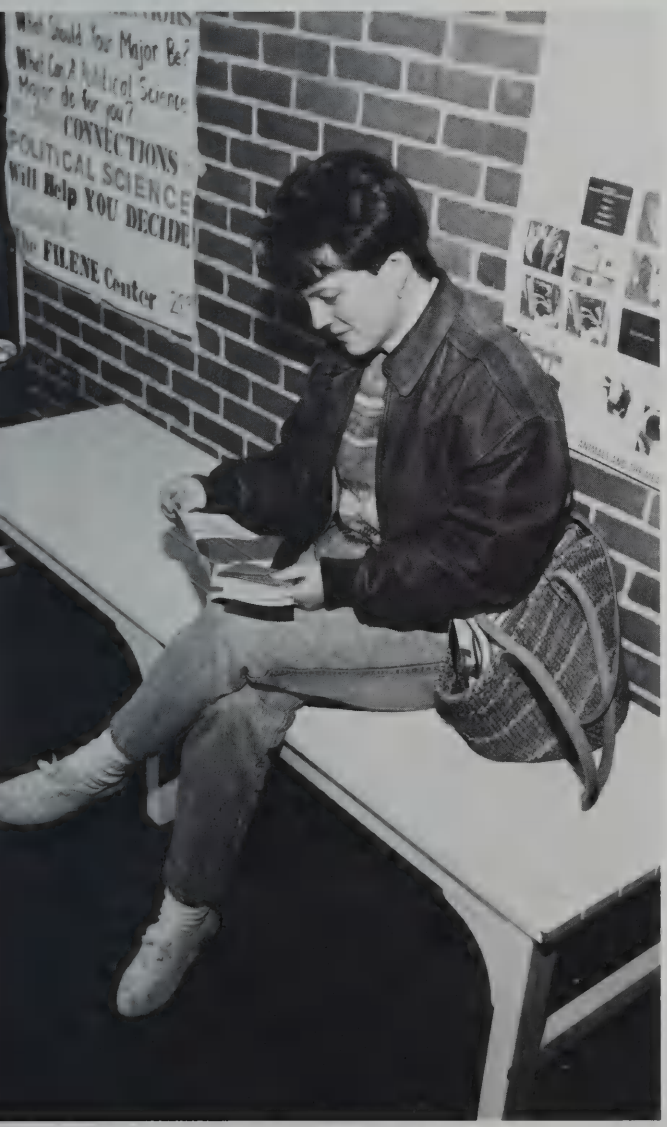

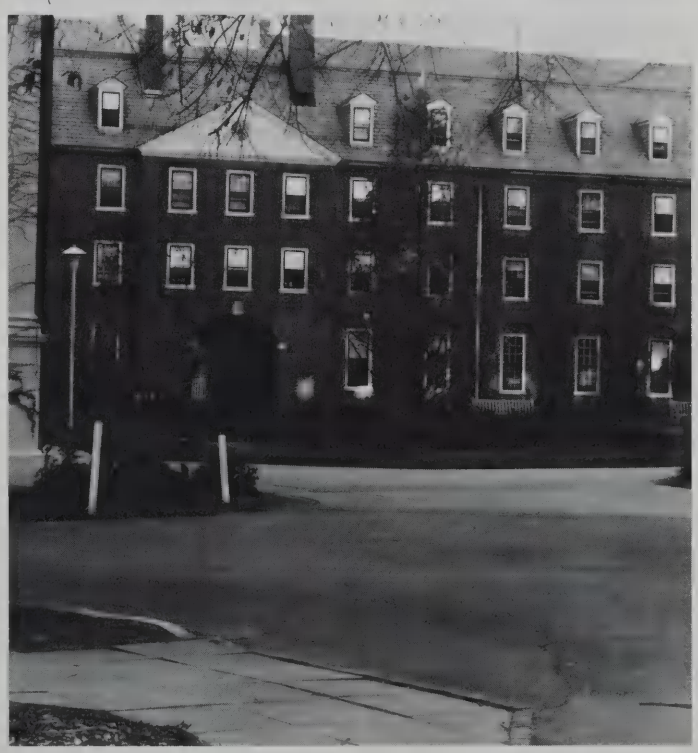

Touch me, it's so easy to leave me
All alone with the memory
Of my days in the sun
If you touch me you'll understand what happiness is Look, a new day has begun. . .

THE CLASS OF 1991 DEDICATES THIS YEARBOOK TO PROFESSORS CURTIS DAHL AND THOMAS MCCORMICK

Professor Curtis Dahl joined the English faculty at Wheaton in 1948. Graduated from Yale University with his Ph.D., Professor Dahl worked for a publisher in New York before pursuing his teaching career at the University of Tennessee and finally settling at Wheaton for the past 43 years.

During his career, Professor Dahl has proven himself to be an independent, candid, conservative and outspoken individual. A great defender of the Anglo Tradition of Literature, he is very distrustful of modern literature and prefers 19th century work. He is respected by both students and colleagues alike. A resident of the town of Norton, Professor Dahl is an active member of both his town and school communities. Wheaton College wishes him the best of luck in his retirement years.

Professor Thomas McCormick became the Wright-Shippee Professor of Art at Wheaton in 1970 having previously taught at Smith College, the University of Vermont, Wells College and Vassar College. He brought with him a vast amount of experience and enthusiasm for every period of Art History. Professor McCormick's interest in Art History has often led him outside the realm of teaching: book review editor and member of the board of directors for the Journal of the Society of Architectural Historians, Fine Arts editor and book review editor of The Philological Quarterly, and after 6 years on the Executive Board he is currently Vice President of the NorthEast American Society for 18th Century Studies. Professor McCormick has contributed a great deal to the Wheaton Community academically and socially. We wish him the best of luck in his retirement.

FOAM FEST

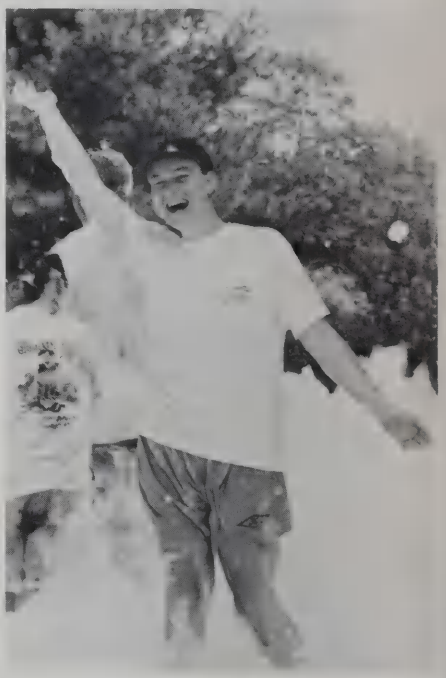

On Saturday, September 29, our revered Programming Council sponsored Foam Fest, in which the whole idea was to get yourself, quite literally, into a lather!

This unusual event appealed to a cross section of the student body, which could be found whooping, hollering, and generally making merry outside of Meadow's Complex. If you have ever had the desire to bear witness to some amongst us losing their cool and thoroughly enjoying themselves in the process, you should petition the Programming Council to repeat this totally awesome experience - on the condition, of course, that admission remains free. Foam Fest 1990!

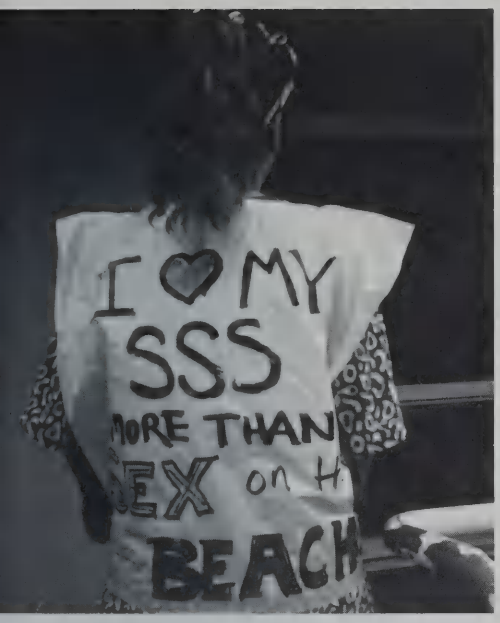

SECRET SOPHOMORE SIBLING WEEK

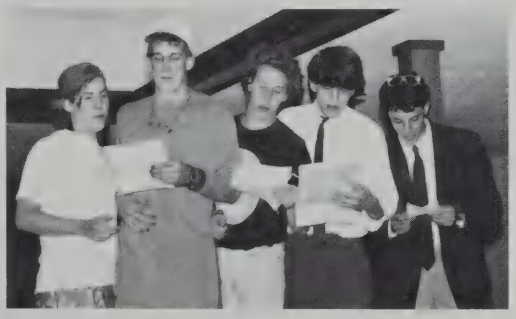

Secret Sophomore Sibling Week, which began Sunday, October 21, 1990 and ended Wednesday, October 24, 1990, was a break from our everyday routines to have some fun at Wheaton. During this week, the upperclassmen subjected the freshmen to all kinds of humorous events and deeds. The campus was filled with babies, transvestites, animals, aliens, and condoms to name a few. The curiosity of the freshmen grew as they anxiously awaited for Wednesday to unveil the identity of their tormentors. On that night, they were rewarded for a job well done. Those who participated in S.S.S. week had a fun time, and on Thursday everything was returned to normal. The freshmen have no doubt started planning their revenge for next year's freshman class!!

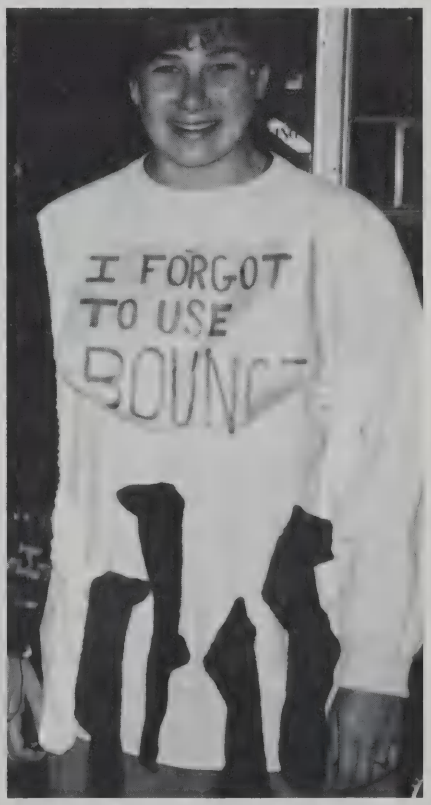

MOTHER'S WEEKEND

A carnival and circus settled over the campus between November 2nd and 4th, for Mother's weekend. The theme, "Under The Big Top," galvanized and decorated the school.

The weekend commenced with the traditional Open Classes on Friday, a Phi Beta Kappa Initiation ceremony and a break for dinner. A Tritons performance, the play "Bedroom Farce" and a WASA/International Students Association fashion show set the pace for the weekend and alerted mothers and daughters to the activities in store.

Saturday proved to be just as hectic. After a sumptuous breakfast, activities to choose from included "Education in the 1990's-a welcome address by President Emerson, an opportunity to browse through past Niké issues, a "Media Circus," and a student poetry reading. A light lunch was followed by the traditional Tree Walk and a performance by the Dance Company. A soothing beginning and end to the evening was provided respectively by the Gospel Choir and live music in the loft.

On Sunday, it was time to say Au Revoir, and after Church services, the Farewell Brunch brought to a close, another exciting and nostalgic Mother's Weekend.

C. EVERETT KOOP LECTURE

The former U.S. Surgeon General, Dr. C. Everett Koop was the perfect and obvious choice to address the school about issues surrounding health care and medical ethics. The "Koop" lecture, which took place on November 30th, 1990, was undoubtedly one of the highlights of the semester.

A panel presentation consisting of students, Laura Evans and Patricia Flanagan, as well as other prestigious authorities in the medical field discussed the merits of medical ethics and medical economics to a large and attentive audience.

Dr. Koop was honored and presented with the Otis Social Justice Award in recognition of his services and dedication to the health of our nation. An SGA and Class of 1991 reception in the atrium gave students, faculty and administrators an opportunity to converse more informally with Dr. Koop.

CROSS COUNTRY

Men's Team. 1st Row: Dan Geagan, Kyle Waters, Keith Neal. 2nd Row: Coach Del Malloy, Mike Cuddire, Mike Cantor, Jim Bueche, Manager Taffy Bassett, Coach Steve Newman.

FIELD HOCKEY

The 1990 season ended with a heart-wrenching 2-1 triple overtime loss to Babson College in the first round of the New England Women's Eight (New 8) playoffs. The loss of four seniors will no doubt affect head coach Heidi Pike's 1991 team, but with seven starters expected to return next fall, the future is bright for the team.

Junior Steph Higgins earned All-New 8 honors this season. The speedy forward led the Lyons in scoring with nine goals and two assists. Senior co-captain Sallie Kent tallied five goals and five assists while fellow senior co-captain Julie Christy added four goals and five assists.

WOMEN'S SOCCER

The 1990 season was a nightmare of injuries and illness for Head Coach Fred Day. A promising 5-0 opening victory at Salve Regina brought high hopes for the remainder of the season. Shortly after that game, the injury bug hit the team and did not leave.

Sophomores Liz Milliman and Andrea Dorr shared the leading scoring honors with two goals each. Milliman added five assists. Eight additional players had one goal each.

MEN'S SOCCER

On Oct. 30, the Lyons closed out the 1990 season by taking on the top ranked team in New England, the Babson Beavers. The Lyons proved to be a worthy opponent, despite the 3-0 score. The teams were scoreless at halftime. The game was tight and Babson held out to score on the Lyons in the final minutes of the game.

Head Coach Mike Noonan's team concluded its second season of varsity competition with an impressive 12-5-1 record. Freshman Jeff Condon led the Lyons in scoring this season with eight goals and five assists. Other scoring leaders included: Christopher Harris, Peter Weber, Kevin Powers, Patrick Neenan, and Jeff Lefebvre.

In goal, freshman Drew Goodman compiled a 9-5-1 record with 3.5 shutouts. He made 84 while allowing only 14 goals for a sparkling .875 save percentage. Joshua Moss also had an impressive season in goal.

WOMEN'S TENNIS

First Row: Rika Mizuno, Co-Captain Genie Edwards, Co-Captain Jackie Michel, Kristen Tschida. Second Row: Head Coach Lynn Miller, Louise Seeber, Julie Shea, Kate Gluckman, Kim Weller, Liz Guthrie, Alexis Crowley, Trisha Snyder, Gabrielle Roth, Asst. Coach Doris Horridge. Absent: Team Manager Nicky Patrizio.

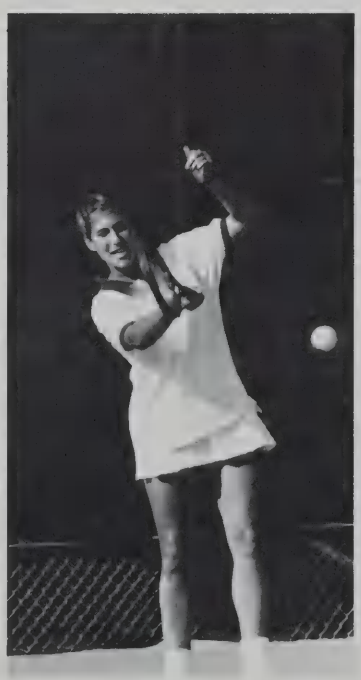

A tough 6-3 loss to Brandeis in the semi-finals of the New England Women's Eight (New 8) Championship cannot take away from the impressive year the women netters had.

Freshman Kate Gluckman began her college career with an eight match unbeaten string en route to an 11-4 record at number six singles. Also earning a spot on the All-New 8 team was freshman Rika Mizuno at number five singles. Mizuno was 14-7 overall this season.

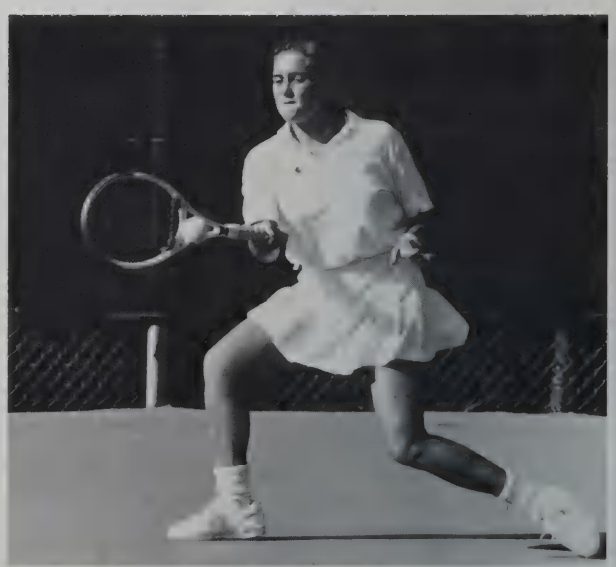

At number one singles, Louise Seeber was 14-6 overall this season. Co-captain Genie Edwards finished at an even 9-9 at number two with fellow co-captain Jackie Michel going 16-4 at number three singles. Sophomore Trisha Snyder had a solid season at number four singles with a 10-8 overall record.

In doubles, the number one combination of Seeber and Michel made the headlines for the Lyons. Although they saw their 11-match streak snapped, the duo turned in a glistening 16-2 record. The number two doubles team of Edwards and Gluckman finished at 6-8 while the number three combo of Mizuno and Snyder was 9-7 this year.

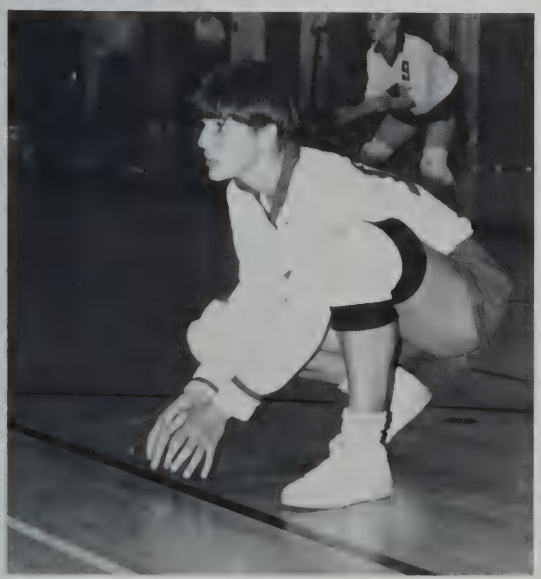

VOLLEYBALL

On the surface, the 9-20 overall record may not appear to be a vast achievement, but that record represents more wins in one season than Wheaton volleyball has tallied in the past two seasons combined. Although head coach Gina Loudenburg needs to find replacements for her two graduating middle hitters, Heidi Baxter and Kristine Wilkinson, the Lyons will return a trio of solid players in sophomore Sue Lankford, freshman Amber Hromi, and freshman Aleksandra Bembnista. Next season looks promising and is awaited with eager anticipation.

DORMS AND HOUSES

CHAPIN

CLARK

Clark's most original programming was created by the individual floors. On the fourth floor - periodical cultural events.

The third floor was a more athletically inclined group (specifically in water sports).

The second floor was known for its passing fire drills and overflowing toilets.

The first floor avoided the falling shower.

CRAGIN

Cragin's small size and the open friendliness of its residents helped make it a pleasant place to live. The people were active in different clubs, sports, and social gatherings. There were always a few doors open at anytime of the night and the people were all very friendly. Cragin was always a great place to be.

EVERETT

Everett entered a new age as its hallowed halls began to house both women and men. The fourth floor short hall was the pilot all male floor and held a variety of programs including doughnut raids and escort dinners. Other fun events hosted by Everett were the Halloween Masquerade Party, Brunch with Bach during Mother's Weekend, and the Condom Party.

KILHAM

The faces behind the facts: S. G. A., sports, government, publications, clubs, and a multitude of other activities.

In addition to all the outside activities, Kilham residents took an active interest in their community. First floor's "Sleep Over". Second floor's "Cookie Fest". Lastly, third floor's "Tie-Dye Fest".

LARCOM

Winning in volleyball and football, Larcom made their reputation in spirit and sport with the Intramural Advisory Board. Their reputation extended to the"Coffee Pot" for late night caffeine boosts and day-old doughnuts at 2 A.M. Whether it be parties, Coffee Pot trips, or intramurals, Larcom residents knew how to make the most of their time.

MCINTIRE

The best of halls,
The worst of halls,
Mattresses in the shower
To butts on the walls.

Studying and thinking,
Partying and drinking,
Programs abound,
People would astound.

With a staff of four,
And P.K. at the lead.
The hall's never a bore,
And poetry classes a Need.

MEADOWS EAST

East hosted a quad wide scavenger hunt throughout Meadows. Individual floors hosted "Bill and Ted's Excellent Tea Parties," along with movie nights and pizza and ice cream parties. In addition, residents worked together to help project SEE to recycle. East residents were an energetic group.

MEADOWS NORTH

Meadows North was made up of a diverse group of women ranging from international students from Pakistan, Kuwait, Luxembourg, S. Africa, Japan, and England, as well as students from the East and West coast.

North residents were involved in many activities and had a very successful chocolate and Holiday party.

MEADOWS WEST

Working together to achieve some common goals, West residents attempted to 'bridge the gender gap' through informal and formal discussions. Other programs were Rape Awareness and Self-Defense Workshops.

Not only focusing on educational goals, West residents were a big part of the social scene.

METCALF

Residents of Metcalf: friendly, usually considerate, unique, loquacious, enthusiastic, social, intelligent, inventive, caring, creative, happy, informed, excited, challenging, eccentric, stupendous, sonorous, ravishing and energetic.

Conclusion: Metcalf is outstanding, superb, remarkable, and an all around groovy place to live.

STANTON

Programs, such as stress management and makeover make-up workshops gave Stanton residents a chance to get together. Stanton had a friendly cat that visited on a regular basis - too bad he wasn't allowed! It was a great year - 88 women living and learning together.

YOUNG

Our pilots steadily sailed through the Wheaton Campus.
The glory of Young continues through its sights and sounds.
Funky disco light show, late night rap sessions, Spanish ringing, shrill screams of senior seminar paper due, flashing lights of Public Safety, S.G.A., Sports, Community Service, Aerobics.

EMERSON

Emerson, the academic house, actively sponsored Sunday teas open to the campus. Students and professors gathered together sharing personal accomplishments. In addition, Emerson had peer writing tutors available. Overall, Emerson residents put forth what they could offer and made their year memorable.

11 HOWARD

11 Howard Street: Special Olympics. 11 Howard sponsored an all day Basketball clinic for S.O. athletes. They attended the S.O. Tournament in Reading, MA. to cheer the athletes to victory.

Above all, the 10 student athletes at 11 Howard developed strong friendships with the S.O. athletes.

44 HOWARD

LINDEN

9 TAUNTON

9 Taunton Ave.: Environmental Awareness House. Established to bring about understanding of our environment, 9 Taunton created a greater environmental awareness to both the Wheaton and Norton Community. Along with committing themselves to recycling on campus, 9 Taunton sponsored a lecture by Dr. John Kricher and worked with elementary school students at the Pine Croft School.

26/28 TAUNTON

WHITE HOUSE

White House: Cultural Diversity House. To promote cultural diversity, both international and national students comprised White House.

Activities included a Japanese dinner, Octoberfest party, film festival, and an International Week Fair. All earned money went to Amnesty International.

AFRICAN - AMERICAN HISTORY MONTH

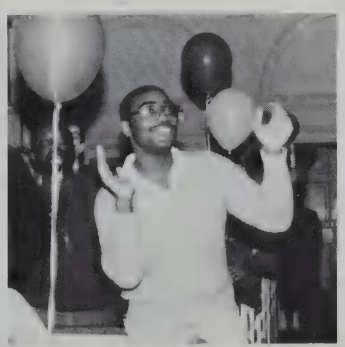

During the month of February, Wheaton joined the nation in "Celebrating the Dream" of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.. The month began with the twirls and pirouettes of the Roxbury Theatre for Performing Arts on February 3rd and continued in the same vein of enthusiasm, remembrance and homage.

The John Edgar Wideman lecture was well received by students, as were the Oratory Contest and Gospel Jamboree, both of which are fast becoming Wheaton traditions. A lecture was given by Dr. William Thompson (a returning professor), as well as a socre of movies, including the award winning, "Glory." On Wednesday, February 20th, the satellite video conference - "The Rise In Campus Racism" - confronted the issues and problems that still pervade our lives despite years of campaigns.

The month began to draw to a close with the return of the Jazz Brunch with Matt Carington and Friends, on Sunday February 24th, in Chase Square.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

The Wheaton College women's basketball team completed a successful 1990-91 season with a record of 14-13. Their season highlights included taking the championship title in the Tip-Off Tournament, advancing into the final four of the NEW 8 championships, and their trip to California in December. Strong performances were turned in by upperclassmen Michelle Napier, Terri Salinetti, Lynne Yenush, Steph Higgins, and Wendy Steinke. The added support of the younger team players was instrumental to the success of the team as well.

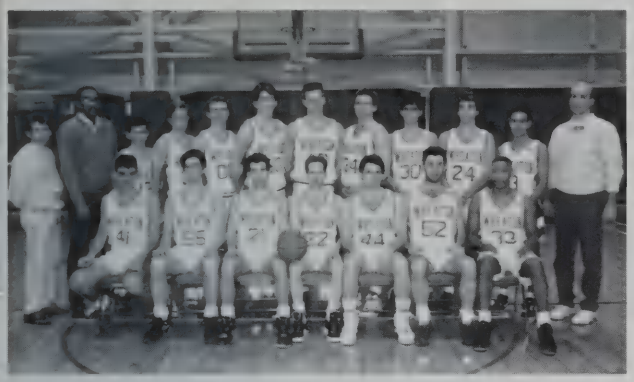

The 1990-91
Women's Basketball team:
Andrea Dorr, Stephanie Higgins, Jennifer Landry, Sue Lankford, Maria Luizzi, Manager Jennifer Mayer, Bethany Meaney, Co-Captain Michele Napier, Co-Captain Terri Salinetti, Wendy Steinke, Lynne Yenush, and Head Coach Del Malloy.

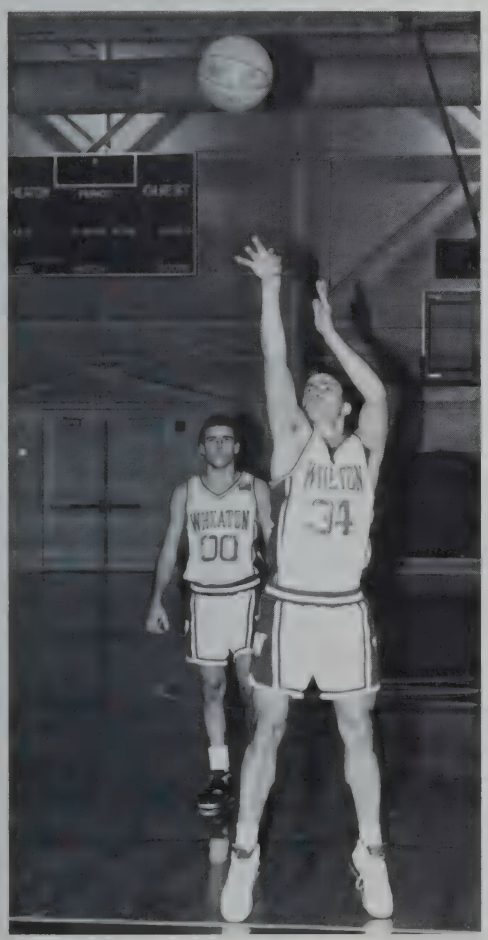

MEN'S BASKETBALL

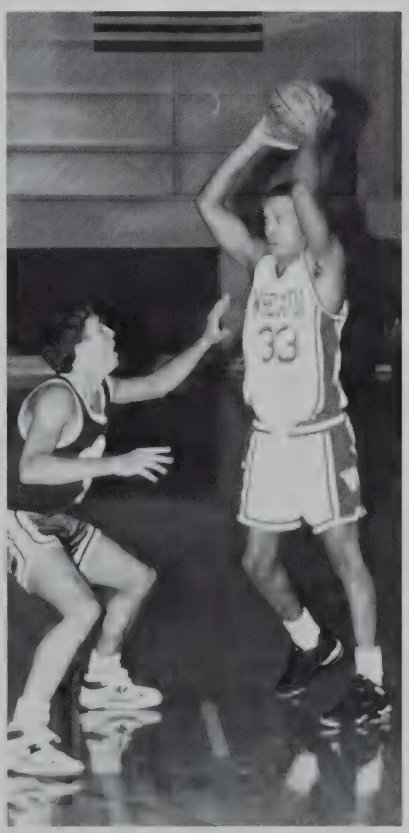

The second varsity season for men's basketball demonstrated a dramatic increase in competitiveness. This season, the team won ten games, more than doubling their total of four wins last season. The team was led in scoring by Chris Sullivan and Will Hawkins, as well as getting strong performances from Shawn Foster, Steve Zatorski, Josh Moss and Chris McAllister. As the team matures, even greater successes are expected from Roy Dow's basketball players!

Animal Awareness

Animal Awareness is a community service group that tries to bring a greater knowledge of issues involving animals to Wheaton students. The group was created in 1990 by students interested in animals because no other protection organization that dealt with these issues was in existence. We currently volunteer at the Providence Animal Rescue League in Rhode Island. This volunteering entails a great deal of contact with the animals in the shelter. Grooming, walking, training, and playing are just a few of the activities that the volunteers enjoy. Our on-campus activities include creating posters to alert the community about companies that conduct animal testing for their products, the cruelty involved in the production of veal and fur coats, and cruelty-free shopping guides. Our board of directors consists of Cindi Hart, President, Brooke Hinkson, Lee-Ann Murphy, and Elhana Warner.

College Republicans

The College Republicans and Conservative Caucus has had a very busy year. This year our officers were Stephen Larkin, Chairman; John Hayes, Co-Chairman; Arrow McClung, Treasurer; and Shawn Bush, Secretary. Many of the College Republicans focused their efforts working on the Massachusetts gubernatorial and senatorial campaign. Second semester focused on the war in the Persian Gulf and a show of support for the troops as well as the President's initiative in the region. Rallies at the Westover Airforce Base, the collection of supplies for troops, and a letter writing campaign, were a few of the activities which helped to show the troops that they had tremendous amounts of support at home. The Wheaton Republicans attended "The Boston Conference" in late February. The conference was attended by CR state federations from across the country. The outcome of the weekend long conference was "The Boston Statement," which was voted to be adopted by the delegates to the conference and stated young conservatives views on the many issues discussed.

Educational Council

SGA Executive Board

Instep Dance Club

This year's Instep Dance Club got off to its strongest start ever. It was headed and organized by President Susan Vavrina, Vice-President Stephanie Jenson, Secretary Denise Spiegelman, and Treasurer Jessica Prentiss. This year's troop danced in an informal jazz style to such hits as Go West's "King of Wishful Thinking" and more mellow favorites as well. Although the group gathered only once a week to practice, the spirit and enjoyment level was high and meetings were relaxed and fun.

International Association

The International Students association is composed of students from more than twenty five countries. It is open to all Wheaton Students interested in world wide events and traditions. The objective of the association is to promote cultural awareness amongst the Wheaton Community and to help foreign students understand the American way of life. The group sees to the needs of all the International students away from home and tries to help them in any way.

Kindred Spirits

Kindred Spirits was formed as an underground Science Fiction and Fantasy club in 1987, and became an official club of Wheaton College in 1989. Its dream is to provide an open forum for the enjoyment and discussion of its favorite genre.

Niké

Rushlight

"A rushlight flickering and small is better than no light at all.' Rushlight was founded in 1855 by Lucy Larcom. Now in its 136th year, the magazine continues to be a forum for creative writing and art work. Twice a year all members of the Wheaton community are encouraged to submit their creative work. The submissions are reviewed anonymously by a group of general readers for a week. After the general voting period is over, a group of students selected by the editors convenes and reviews those pieces that the general readers recommend for publication. Once the selection process is over, the writers whose work has been selected for publication are notified and everyone is thanked for their submissions. The Rushlight editors this year were A. Elizabeth Elz, Carolyn Harris and Lori Spector. These seniors worked closely with the members of core reading and Sue Standing to put together this year's publication of Rushlight.

Sailing Club

The Sailing Club, under the supervision of Professor Epstein, had two successful seasons racing in the New England Intercollegiate sailing Association. The club, consisting of twenty-five active members, practices three times a week for regattas that are held every weekend at N.E.I.S.A. affiliated colleges. During both the fall and spring seasons, the club co-hosted regattas with Stonehill College. The future goals of the team are to reobtain their varsity status at Wheaton. Co-Presidents Lyon Terry and Lesley Rock, Vice-President Adam Dubitsky, Treasurer Olivia Crockett, Secretary Allyson Bizer, and Fund Raising Chairs Lessie Arminger and Julie Hayes. "If the boat's rockin', don't come knockin'..."

Union of Black Students

The Union of Black Students is a Black Student run organization that helps the students to adjust to the academic, social and political life at Wheaton. The Union strives to strengthen and maintain a feeling of togetherness among the Black population at Wheaton. Throughout the year, the Union sponsors a variety of events, such as speakers, social events and lecturers.

SOAR

WASA

The primary purpose of the club is to unify the Asian students on campus and to educate the campus with our cultural diversity. Membership is limited to Asians only, but our events are open to the entire campus. Our famous annual events are the International Fashion Show, held during Mothers Weekend, and the Indian Dinner. Thanks to Judy Purdy, Director of International Students, for all her help. The 1990-1991 board includes: Kevin Lam'92, President; Pam Sheshiah'93, Vice-President; Long Bou'93, Treasurer; and Jampa Palsang '93, Secretary.

The Wheaton Patriot

The Wheaton Patriot, a monthly conservative forum for news and viewpoints, enjoyed a tremendous amount of improvement and expansion during its second year of existence. The editorial board headed by John Hayes and Stephen Larkin addressed various issues pertaining to Wheaton. The legitimacy of Multicultural Orientation, professor bias and its effect on students grades, the tenure system, and the "political correctness" of many of the college's administrators were topics that the Patriot and its dedicated staff toppled. The point was to open lines of communication between students, faculty, and staff so that the free exchange of ideas and thought could prevail, and to be sure that no one voice was hindered by any opposing force. The Patriot wants to see to it that the college mission of academic freedom stands strong and at the forefront of any decision made concerning student life at Wheaton.

Whims

The Whims are a female a capella singing group founded on December 13, 1947. The Whims have always stood for singing, fellowship and fun. Their repertoire consists of music from every genre and generation, ranging from the Andrew Sisters to Yaz and their own Georgetown Skit. They have recorded numerous albums, sung for competitions, charities, private parties, celebrations, alumnae/i and new students, and Mothers and Fathers Weekends. Every year they perform with other college a capella groups for jamborees and formal concerts. This year the Whims were Emily McHugh'94, Becky Tredeau'94, Treasurer Holly DeSimone'93, Brenda Irving'93, Leslie Moyer'93, Sara Sharpless'93, Lauren Jenks'92, Beth Daly'91, Musical Director Beth Award'91, and President and Business Manager Laura Mosiello'91. As the seniors say goodbye to Wheaton and the Whims, fond memories of Steve Urkel, the Swedish Chef, the Wheaton Goose, and more "surprise guests" stay in their hearts forever.

SPRING SPORTS AND ACTIVITIES

THE EVELYN DANZIG HAAS ATHLETIC CENTER

"Basketball was invented in 1891 and introduced to Wheaton in 1895. Physical Training in the 1890's - where exercises were more rigorous and scientific, using apparatus to test and strengthen the individual student. These activities helped to promote self-discipline as well as self-expression."

Entering through the Bank of Boston Entrance of the 'new Athletic Center,' proves that health and fitness programs at Wheaton have entered a new dimension. The spacious Ellison Teaching and Conference suite houses the offices of Chad Yowell, Heidi Pike, Del Malloy and other coaches and administrators. The Beard Field House houses the indoor track and tennis courts. A further investigation yields the basketball courts with the high tech ventilation ducts, locker rooms and the Tritons pride and joy, the pool, all 40 by 20 yards of it.

Finally, on April 20, 1991, the structural edifice we had (until then), fondly referred to as the 'new Athletic Center' was christened: The Evelyn Danzig Haas Athletic Center.

The dedication ceremony began at 10:00 a.m. and resounded at the end of the day with a dip and splash. Faculty, Staff, Students and their guests were invited to a Gala Tailgate Luncheon, after which - fitness in mind - it was necesssary to burn off calories. On this note, the day continued with the Women's Softball game against Bowdoin and "the race of the ingenious floating craft" - better known as Head of the Peacock. A brief solemn pause to honor the Intramural Athlete of the Year on Meadows Lawn and then on with the medley. The clash of the titians continued with the Women's and Men's Lacrosse games on Keefe and Elms Fields respectively. Weary but happy, people retired to the side of the notoriously near-Olympic size pool to witness the Tritons 50th Reunion Show. Triton team members from the Classes of '44 through '91 said "Thanks for the Memories."

The Evelyn Danzig Haas Athletic Center - like the Dimple, Slype, Hebe and Balfour Hood - is a new Wheaton tradition, here to stay.

FATHER'S WEEKEND

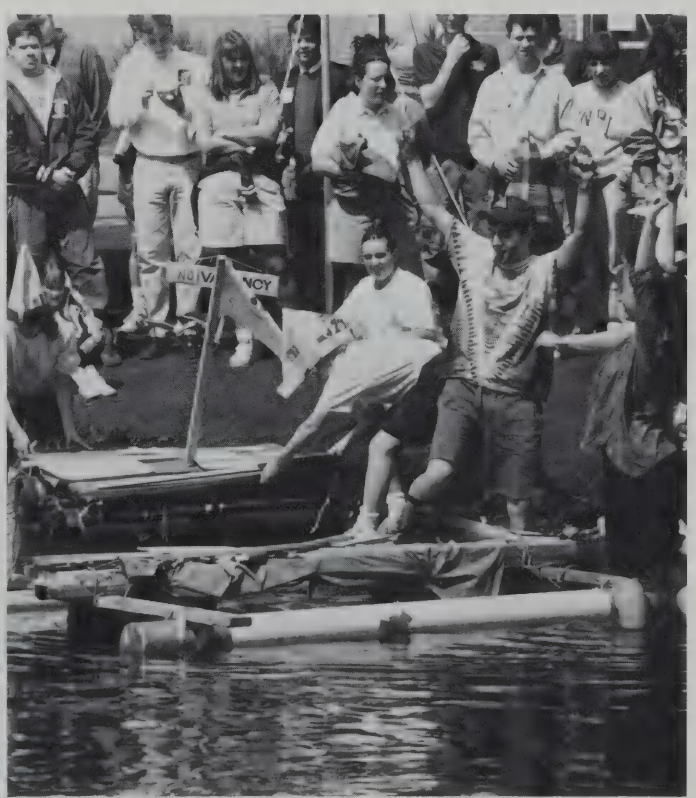

SPRING WEEKEND

A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM

The Wheaton College Department of Theater presented a wonderful performance of the Shakespearean play, A Midsummer Night's Dream, directed by Professor David Fox. Six performances were offered -- April 11, 12 & 13, and April 18, 19, & 20. Some of the main characters were performed by Jason Moscartolo (Puck), Calliope Thorne (Hermia), Michael Kelly (Lysander), Devon Jencks (Helena), Jason Bermudez (Demetrius), Alvaro Quintas (Oberon), Mary Rose Sarja (Titania) and Michael Cuddire (Theseus). The list of talent continues, but is far too numerous to mention individually.

For audience members unfamiliar with the play, a synopsis was contained within the playbill explaining the plot. The Shakespearean language was handled quite well by the cast.

Much credit is due to Edmond Deraedt (scenic design), Diane Michalowski (costume design), Jeffrey Mailhot (lighting and technical design), Jennifer Irvine (stage manager) and Christopher Allen (sound design). Every individual involved helped to make this production one of the best ever presented by the Wheaton College Department of Theater.

COMMENCEMENT 1991

The sun shone on the class of 1991 as the excitement of senior week came to a close. We gathered in the Everett Courtyard and awaited the start of OUR commencement exercises. Family, friends and alumnae gathered around the dimple to bear witness to the conferring of degrees. We had waited and worried about the weather, but as we were told at rehearsal, "It never really rains on a Wheaton Commencement."

L GLOW IN WARM AND FRIENDLY RAYS
BY THE THOUGHTS OF COLLEGE DAYS

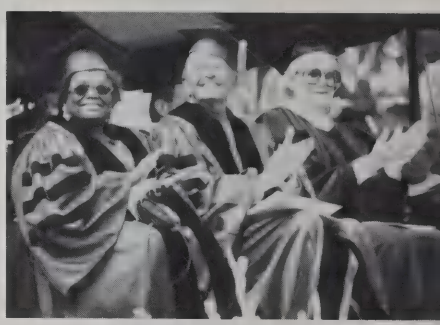

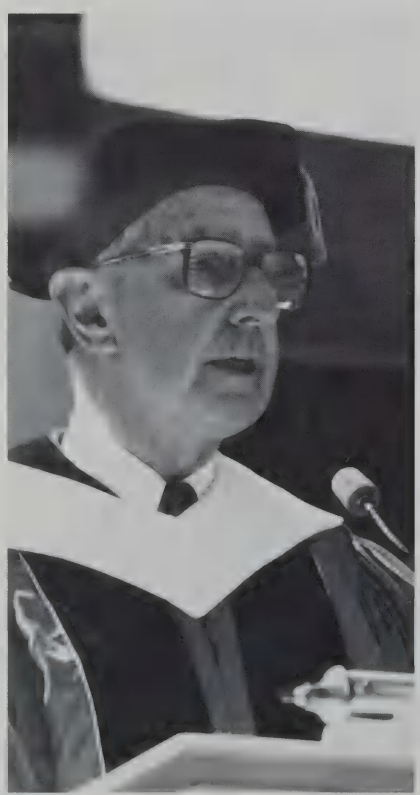

Several honorary degrees were presented this year: Doctor of Laws to Javier Pérez de Cuéllar (in absentia) for his work toward world peace as the Secretary General of the United Nations; Doctor of Laws to Ruth Marion Batson for her longstanding efforts in desegregation and her work toward making education something that is accessible to everyone; Doctor of Science to Thomas Berry Brazelton for his years of work in pediatrics, attempting to "demystify the world of children"; and Doctor of Humane Letters to Jane Eleanor Ruby for her research in the field of history, accomplishments as a teacher and musician, as well as to recognize her two years as Wheaton Provost.

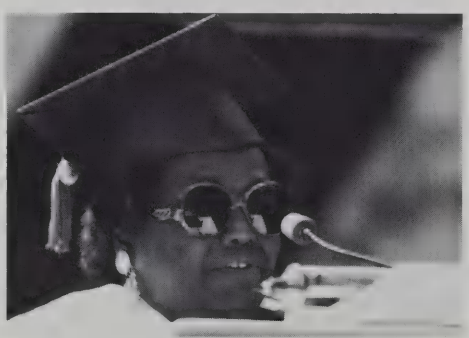

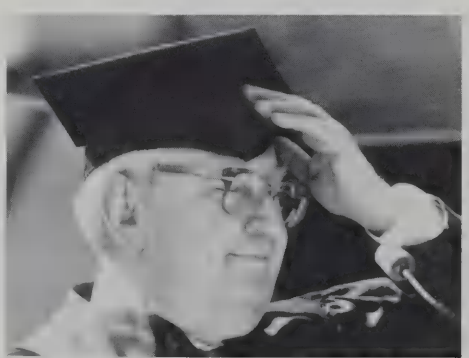

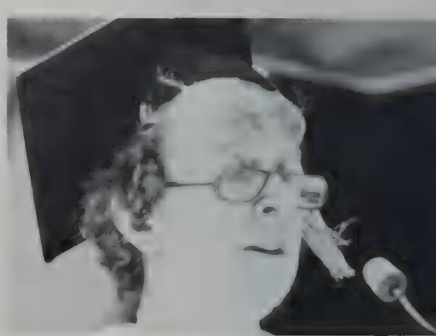

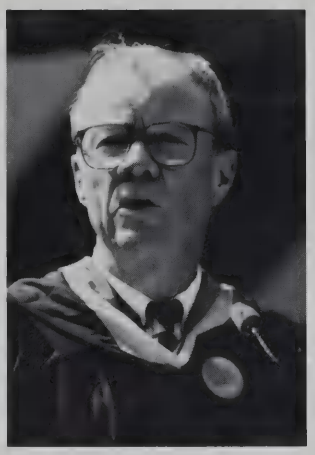

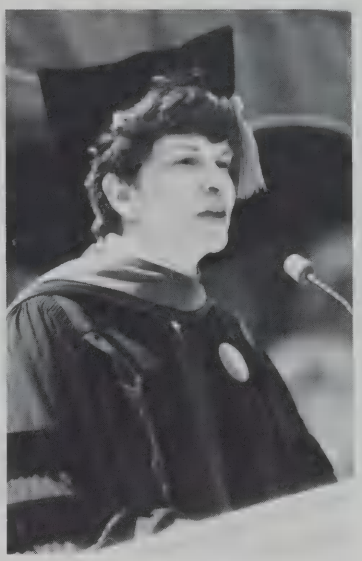

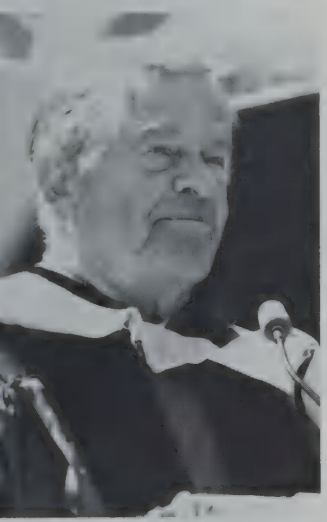

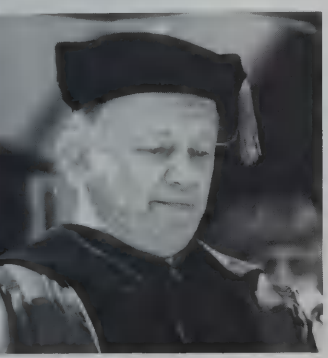

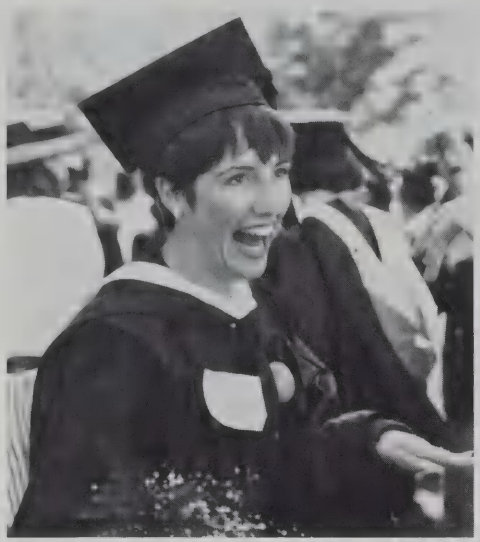

The final Honorary Degree of Doctor of Laws was presented to William F. Weld, Governor of Massachusetts, for his commitment to justice and public service. In addition, Governor Weld was recognized for his long standing personal ties with the Wheaton community and gave the commencement address to the class of 1991.

ode to antony mcclung by the ghost of e.e. cummings

you've finally made it through a year –
with lots of trials, tribulations and beer
(causing your parents anxiety and fear!)

one year down and five to go then you'll be a lawyer, don't you know you've worked so hard, so please don't fail just get rich and put our check in the mail your sisters want you to make it up the corporate hill because they're both expecting to be in your will there's one important thing we must cover

we're so proud of our son and brother
(just don't ever forget to call your mother!)

Thanks for going to bat for me Steve G. It was tough but I made it. Thanks again, Toni

BIG SIS-DO YOU HAVE TO LEAVE SO SOON? ALWAYS REMEMBER THE GOOD TIMES, AND OF COURSE, YOUR LIL SIS! I LOVE YOU!

Lisa-you have been a great friend, the best anyone could ever have. We'll remember all of the great times we have had in the chapel. Good luck in life and don't just let life pass you by, but live it. I love you! FRIENDS FOREVER - Linda

TO MOM AND DAD, THANKS FOR ALL THE LOVE, SUPPORT AND MONEY OVER THE YEARS. I COULD NOT HAVE DONE IT WITHOUT YOU. TO LOREDANA, HAPPINESS AND SUCCESS AL WAYS, YOU HELPED ME SURVIVE. LOVE, FRIENDSHIP, AND HAPPINESS TO ALL MY FRIENDS AT WHEATON. JENNIFER L. NASH

CONGRATULATIONS
CLASS OF 1991

THANK YOU 1991 Niké STAFF!

Thank you to everyone who contributed their time and effort to the seemingly endless task of completing the 1991 yearbook. Together, we built a great book. We wish you the best of luck for the future.

-- Kerry & Nina

In addition to the above thanks, I would like to extend my personal thanks to those who offered me their friendship and support over the past year: Mom, Dad, Nadine, Michele and Jim; Laura and Kelli, who distracted me whenever I tried to have an anxiety attack and offered help when I needed it. Also, thank you to Nina, who taught me everything I know about being co-editor-in-chief. Nina, best of luck in your third year as co-editor. Thanks to Ann McBurney for all of her guidance and support. Thank you again to the 1991 staff.

 Love, Kerry
